Past Presidents Month

This Week—Past President Curt Langer opened our meeting with a prayer and Past President Ed Wegner who drove up from the coast to join us gave a Rotary Moment on his feelings about Tigard Breakfast Rotary Club and how he misses his association with his Rotary friends here in Tigard.

Announcements included:

- Rotary Networking Opportunity, The Benson Hotel, Portland, Wednesday, February 16th at 5pm.

Sergeant At Arms—Curt Langer took over as SAA today and was able to cajole and embarrass members and guests alike to contribute.

Christy Scattarella, Executive Director and founder of I Can The Shadow Project spoke this morning on her organization developed to help close the achievement gap for students with complex learning challenges. Just as wheelchair ramps foster independence for persons with physical disabilities, The Shadow Project helps make learning accessible for boys and girls whose 'invisible' disabilities include dyslexia, ADHD, autism and communications disorders. They serve 27 Portland-area schools, providing life-changing classroom enrichment that helps struggling students reach goals and turn "I can't" into "I can!"

The Shadow Project partners with special education teachers to help close the achievement gap for students with complex learning challenges. They envision a day when all youngsters with disabilities recognize themselves as capable and courageous, and when no more children give up on school because they feel they can't learn. The Shadow Project provides life-changing enrichment special education teachers use right in their classrooms that helps struggling students grades K-8 reach goals and discover the joy of learning.

Marble Mania: The pot grew this morning to $372.00. Members sat up and took notice when Mindy Wegner....Past President Ed Wegner's daughter's number was drawn. Mindy reached into the bag and 'lo and behold she was the winner of our largest Marble Mania yet. Mindy was so impressed with this mornings I Can The Shadow Project that she asked that club make out the check to our speakers organization. Pictured here on the left is Mindy presenting the check to Christy Scattarella. Thank you Mindy, your generosity sets a good example
